

BREAKOUTS

BONUS

B BREAKOUT	SOUL CARE: "Be Anxious for Nothing" But How? STEPHANIE HUSK Be Still & Grow Salem, OR Learn how to tell the difference between anxiety and normal concern or worry. This workshop offers practical tools for quieting the racing thoughts and physical manifestations of anxiety so that you can get back to the ministry you love!	301
B BREAKOUT	LEADERSHIP: The Life-Changing Power of Joy CHRIS VOIGT Dayspring Fellowship Keizer, OR Advances in brain science have made it possible to understand exactly what makes life transformation happen...and it's not what we've thought for 2,000 years. Chris will unpack how faith and science come together to help people become more like Jesus, and how we, as worship leaders, can better play a role in the discipleship journey of our people.	302
B BREAKOUT	VOCAL: Leading Your Vocal Team to the Next Level CINDY KENNY New Hope West & New Hope Christian College Eugene, OR No matter where your team is at, there is always room to grow. In this breakout, we will talk about leadership principles and work through practical tips for preparing your vocal team for success and leading them through vocal rehearsal, soundchecks, services and debrief. Doing it all with the heart of a coach and shepherd.	123
B BREAKOUT	INSTRUMENTAL: Putting It All Together CORY KNOWLAND Peoples Church Salem, OR So, you have the band scheduled, you have the songs picked, you have a vision for the service and everyone is there and ready to rehearse. Now what? How do you take this team and the song selection to a well-rehearsed and powerful presentation of music, and facilitate worship moments that can change lives? We'll walk through a rehearsal of familiar worship songs and see them develop into a congregational worship experience.	COUNTRYSIDE SANCTUARY
B BREAKOUT	SOUND: Worship Teams and Tech Teams: One Team DOUG GOULD Worship MD Lawrenceville, NJ Let's discuss the things that draw us closer so that together we're all working towards the same goal. There's a lot to unpack here but they are things that will definitely make us better.	SUMMIT